SCHOOL REPORTS

Elementary School

Jeff Cravy reported that there are activities planned for Classified Week. The Dr. Suess celebration was held on March 2. The STAR Protocol group met to observe each other. On the early release day, the Title I school-wide team met and the math committee met. Jeff and the secretaries attended a training on office organization and the secretaries also attended an Excel workshop. The Laser training will be in June and as part of the grant, a community member and a school member are asked to attend.

Middle School

Ed Morgan reported that on March 1 and 2, the GEAR-Up group went to the Omak Pac for a repertory dance theater. On the last early release day, the staff first met as a group to plan activities to prepare for the WASL, then broke off into smaller groups to work in content area. Pride Week is this week. On Friday, there will be a Science Fun and Facts assembly. The dance that was held on March 2 went well.

High School

Jeff Hardesty reported that today was the first day of the WASL testing. The high school is working on the Gates Grant rewrite and will continue through the process to be invited to apply.
